LIVER COMPLAINTS, AND ALL SICKNESS & DISEASES. DR. LIN'S.

Temperance Life-Bitters, AND CHINESE BLOOD-PILLS.

The Greatest Secret Discovered! The Purge-purge has been the cry for the last few years. This has been effectually cured, and yet sufferers have multiplied and died; and why? Not because purging was not necessary, but too much has been done without the tonic to follow, and sustain the system. Purge, you must! The sickly humors of the blood must be carried off, or the accumulation of them prevented. Prevent, then, the growth of such humors.

Why do the Chinese live to such immense ages, and still retain the powers of youth or middle age? Because they purify the blood. The Chinese Blood-Pills, so called because they work upon and cleanse the blood, are the standard remedy. These Pills will do it, and the Temperance Bitters, taken as directed, will strengthen the system and prevent the accumulation of the base humors which infest the blood, and which only increase by purges, unless the Bitters are taken after. Buy, then, these Pills and Bitters. Take weekly the Pills and daily the Bitters; and if you are or have been invalid for days, weeks, months, or years, you will find the sickly humors drawn off, and prevented from a return, and the full-blown glow of health and youthful buoyancy.

There are cases so numerous of these brilliant effects, that time and space forbid an attempt to put them down. Buy and use these medicines, and use no other, and health and strength shall be yours. See wrapper and directions that come with them.

FRAUDULENT COUNTERFEITS.

Will be attempted. Buy no remedy of the kind unless it bears my name O. C. LIN, M. D. on the wrapper, and also the notice as follows:

Entered according to Act of Congress, A. D. 1831, by THOS. CONNOR, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

Warned the only genuine. Messrs. COMSTOCK & Co., New York, are the sole wholesale Agents for the United States and all neighboring countries.

TO THE OLD AND YOUNG.

Red Hair and Grey! PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY.

Last India Hair Dye.

Colors the Hair and will not the Skin!!! THIS Dye is in form of a Powder which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the Hair every night, the first night turning the lightest red or grey hair to a dark brown, and by repeating a second or third night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair of a dark shade, or a perfect black; with a positive assurance that the powder, if applied to the hair, will color it. There is no trouble in removing it from the hair, as in all powders before made. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair! These pills complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.

If these facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated chemist, Dr. Comstock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and many other works well known and widely read by the public.

This Dye is sold by COMSTOCK & Co., 71 Maiden Lane, New York.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. LADD, corner of Smith's Block, and by A. P. GUILD, Exchange street.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Maine Farmer and Mechanic's Advocate. (New Series.) E. HOLMES, Editor.

The proprietors of the MAINE FARMER, in accordance with the suggestions of their friends, and with a view to meet the wishes of a large number of their subscribers, have come to the conclusion to make a change in the form and size of the paper, on the first of January next. It will be about double the size that it now is.

They propose to issue a paper, once per week, in a large folio size, to be called MAINE FARMER and MECHANIC'S ADVOCATE. One page is to be devoted exclusively to Agriculture, one to Mechanical subjects, frequently illustrated with engravings, one page to the current news of the day, with the proceedings of the Legislature and of Congress when these two bodies are in session, and the remaining page to be devoted to miscellaneous reading, poetry, &c.

They presume it is not necessary to enlarge upon the peculiar character or future course of the paper now offered to you. The Maine Farmer has been in existence nine years, steadily and perseveringly devoted to the interest of the productive classes. It will continue, as hitherto, a steady and undeviating friend to the Farmers and Mechanics; zealously urging forward the spirit of improvement, and encouraging the efforts of honest industry. Many of our best practical Farmers have long been engaged in contributing to the columns of the Farmer. These, as well as others will continue their aid and assistance in the Agricultural portion, and we have the assurance of many excellent Mechanics that they will also contribute to the columns of their department.

Terms: $2 per ann. $2.50 will be charged if payment is delayed beyond the year.

Any person who will obtain six responsible subscribers, and act as Agent, shall receive a copy, so long as he keeps that number good, for his services.

New READING BOOK for Schools.

THE MONITORIAL READER, or a Monitor to Youth, holding up to their view Models whereby to form their own Characters. By DANIEL ADAMS, Author of Adams's New Arithmetic.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PREFACE.

"THE MONITORIAL READER possesses distinctive traits. The object is to supply what is believed to be the great desideratum in our schools: a series of exercises relating to what concerns the practical matters of life: truth, integrity, honesty, industry, temperance, foresight, frugality, patient endurance of adversity, and whatever else tends to form and fix the character of youth."

We wish to impress it on the minds of those, into whose hands these exercises shall come, now, in this brief time of life, what is here so abundantly inculcated, that "Every man is emphatically the architect of his own fortune," that with themselves it lies whether they shall ever be any thing or nothing; that a moment's caprice to begin with does not weigh a whit in the balance for or against them, that, coming into life with health, strength, capacity for labor; good education, a useful and respectable trade, habits of industry, sobriety, punctuality, frugality, and above all, with a GOOD AND UNSULLIED CHARACTER, they have the best of all capital: a moral capital, the noblest of all power, moral power, and the most certain means of honest and honorable accumulation and fortune, and may be sure, under circumstances ordinarily propitious, to rise to that competency of influence, respect, and general confidence, and that honorable measure of wealth and independence, which should fully satisfy a reasonable and virtuous ambition."

EXTRACTS FROM RECOMMENDATIONS.

The influence will all be found on the side of virtue, morality and religion. Occasional comments are given. Difficult or unusual words are defined. Prose and poetry are suitably intermingled. It is hardly to be imagined that this book should fail of popularity. It certainly would not, had it not so many competitors that have got the start of it in the race. As it is, its merit is such as to give it fair promise of ultimate success in the contest. Boston Recorder.

Dr. Adams: Having examined to some extent your Monitorial Reader, I am pleased with its plan, its object, and the manner in which it has been executed. It seems adapted to the intellectual and moral improvement of those for whose use it was designed. I trust it will prove to be what its author fondly anticipates.

(Rev.) Z. S. BARSTOW, Keene.

It is just such a book as our New England boys and girls will be glad to see, for it inculcates in a pleasing manner, industry, frugality, truth, honesty, temperance, peace, kindness, fortitude, and a cheerful piety. The Vocabulary, at the end, and the arrangement for defining words, will add to its value in the hands of a judicious teacher.

(Rev.) ABEL A. LIVERMORE, Keene. We have also recommendations from a number of individuals and periodicals, among which are D. Crosby, Preceptor of the High School at Nashua; J. Newton Brown, Professor of Theology at New-Hampshire. It is also adopted by the Associations of School Teachers in Cheshire and Hillsborough counties, and by the School Committee of Concord.

About 8000 copies have been published, and mostly disposed of.

Published and for sale by ROBY, KIMBALL & MERILL, North End, Main Street, Concord, N. H. For sale by the Booksellers in Portland, Hallowell, Augusta, Bangor, Waterville, Gardiner, Belfast and Eastport, Me.

THE LION OF THE DAY.

THE OLD VEGETABLE OR GERMAN PILLS.

POSITIVE, OR NO PAIN.

THEY are highly recommended by Dr. Valentine Mott, of the city of New York. A medicine to prevent the attacks of disease, to keep the system in healthy action, and to graduate as soon as possible every disease as soon as it appears, has been the great study of medical men for many years without success. The subscriber, however, not expecting his Pills to cure all the ills which flesh is heir to, confidently recommends them as certain and efficacious in the following: Headache, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Cholic, bilious, remittent, and intermittent Fevers, diseases of the Liver, and Spleen, Female Obstructions, Rheumatism, Foul Stomach, Dizziness of the Head, Loss of Appetite, Weakness, and trembling of the Limbs, Nausea, or sickness at the Stomach, Flushings of the Face, Summer Complaints, Measles, Scarlet Rash, and will be found invaluable in complaints of the Digestive Organs, and particularly those arising from impurity of the blood. As a preventive against Fevers, no persons should go to a warm climate without a box of these Pills; they are entirely of vegetable ingredients, and can be taken safely without fear. Price, 37 1/2 cents a box.

For sale at A. GEYER'S Drug Store, 104 Hanover street, corner of Salem street, Boston. General Agent for the N. E. States, and may be had at most of the Drug Stores in the U. S. and in the Canadas.

The genuine Pills have the written signature of MERRITT GRIFFIN on each box.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Maine in Legislature assembled.

THE Proprietors of the Penobscot Boom Corporation respectfully represent, that they have been at great expense in erecting the Penobscot Boom, for the protection and security of the logs which annually float down the Penobscot River.

And for the protection, security, and delivery of these Logs to the rightful owners and claimants, your petitioners are at a great annual expense.

To protect the interest and meet the convenience of the public, large sums of money must necessarily be annually appropriated by the proprietors to defray the expenses of the Booms.

For the encouragement of the Proprietors to enable them to meet these appropriations and expenses and to put the Booms annually in a condition to meet the wants and convenience of the public, your petitioners would humbly pray that they may be allowed a fair, reasonable and adequate toll or boorage upon the Lumber which is annually secured and protected in their Booms, and that they may have a sufficient lien upon the Lumber to secure the payment of such Boorage and other expenses and that the Legislature in their wisdom will adopt such regulations as to Toll and Boorage as shall be for the mutual benefit of your petitioners and those whose Lumber they secure and protect, and as in duty bound will ever pray.

SAMUEL VEAZIE, Agent of said Corporation.

NEWPORT ACADEMY.

THE Winter Term of this Institution will commence on MONDAY, the 6th day of December next, under the instruction of the present Principal, JOSIAH HARMON, A. B. whose reputation as a thorough teacher is well established.

The building is new and spacious and constructed on an improved plan, which renders it more convenient than any other school room in the State. The location is retired and pleasant. It is intended as a permanent and perpetual school, and therefore offers rare facilities to students fitting for college, of which there are already a respectable number.

Particular attention is paid to persons fitting themselves for Common School Teachers.

Surveying practically taught by a teacher of thorough experience, and the advantage of a set of Surveying and Rail Road Instruments equal to any in the State, in connection with the Institution.

Price of Board from $1.00 to $1.50 per week. Tuition for Common English branches, $3.00. Higher English, $3.50 to $4.00. Languages, $4.00.

Some New Jersey genius, has been manufacturing indigo out of Plaster of Paris and rye colored with Prussian blue. It is said to be far superior to the wooden nutmeg invention, though the contriver seems to be modest in his pretensions and has not yet applied for a patent.

We regret to learn that the excellent toned church bell at the Methodist Chapel, was broken while ringing for fire on Thursday evening last. This is the largest bell in the city, was of excellent tone, and we hope another may supply its place.

For the Whig and Courier.

In reply to the question of 'Temperance' in Saturday's paper, whether he ought to help save the goods of his neighbor, in case of fire, if they consist in part of liquors, I have to say that I do not think he would do right in helping to save the liquor, though he might in helping to save the other goods. If his neighbor's stock had consisted in part of poisons which he made a business of selling to the suicide, and this was within the knowledge of 'Temperance,' I think he would not have been long in deciding the question whether to help save those poisons or not; indeed, I doubt some whether he would have assisted in saving any part of the goods.

ARSENIC.

Greenville Mellen.

The poet, son of the late Chief Justice Melton of Portland, died at New York, aged 41 years. He graduated at Harvard University in 1818. As a poetical writer he had few superiors, and the following beautiful stanzas, from the New York Tribune, were dedicated to his memory, by Mrs. E. J. James, of New York.

"Another harp is broken, and the strains that trembled upon its strings are now heard in Heaven!"

Another, and another;
They are going one by one;
The golden bowl is broken,
And life's silver thread is spun
In the life's pride of Manhood,
With its glory on his brow,
And Fame's wreath upon his temples.
But that is nothing now!

For it cannot lift the veil that's drawn so closely
O'er his eyes,
Nor break the solemn, mystic seal, that on his fine lip lies.

O beautiful and sweetly beautiful,
Were the breathings of thy lyre,
For Genius like a living coal,
Hath touched thee with its fire.
The light shed from thy musings
Had its birth-place in thy mind,
Where all the finer faculties
Of intellect were shrined.

O the World thy name is speaking its lament
For thee is loud
But thou canst not hear its praises through the foldings of the shroud.

Thou hast put on the garments
Of the Redeemed in Heaven,
And the Harp whereon the Angels play
Hath to thy hand been given!
For the Poet's earthly laurel
For his bright but cold renown
Thou hast - on this Immortality,
Add wear'd a fadeless crown!

We will not - thy song, O sweet! from the long hours of our life
Ours is the love but thine the gain, and that thy name shall be Forever thine, thy name!

MAINE LEGISLATURE.

[Augusta Correspondence.]

State House, Augusta, }
FRIDAY, Jan. 14, 1842.

You will see in the Kennebec Journal of this morning a lot of nominations by the Governor made last night about sunset, which will explain to you the reason why I did not send them in my letter of yesterday. The Governor has begun the work in earnest, determined to relieve himself of the horde of hanging expectants, who have been prowling round the Executive Chamber for the last week. If there is to be a clean sweep, and no one can entertain any doubt upon that point, why, then, the sooner the better. A speedy decision will save much individual suffering.

In the House, papers from the Senate were disposed of in concurrence. The Judiciary Committee were directed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the revised Statutes as to authorize the Indian Agent, to procure flannels and blankets for the Indians in the town of Lewiston or some other manufacturing town, in this State, or some other State; also, to inquire into the expediency of repealing the 75th chapter of the revised Statutes, which relates to hawkers and peddlars. Also, to inquire into the expediency of repealing the law passed in 1832, authorizing the printers of the several papers in the State to publish the laws.

The Committee on State Roads, were directed to inquire into the expediency of laying out and building a road on the South side of the St. John, westerly from Fort Kent, to the mouth of the river St. Francis.

A Resolve was introduced, declaring it inexpedient and unnecessary that the present session of the Legislature should extend beyond the 25th of February, which was laid on the table.

Mr. McDonald called up the order which was yesterday laid on the table, proposing to submit certain questions respecting the constitutionality of the apportionment resolves of 1841, to the Justices of the Supreme Court, and opposed the passage. Mr. McDonald in the course of his remarks, said he hoped that the present democratic Legislature, would not submit any question to the present Supreme Court, as at present organized. I am again surprised at the course of this gentleman, he is a lawyer of some standing, and should be above lugging in politics and party considerations to every question that comes before the house; perhaps the gentleman was afraid he should be unable to prevent the passage of this order without resorting to this demagogic course; he was successful this time, and the order still slumbers on the table.

Resolve in favor of Daniel Libbey was passed finally and sent to the Senate.

The following petitions and remonstrances were presented and referred. Of Darius Alden et al. of Selectmen of Augusta of Selectmen of N. Berwick of Jerry Nichols et al. of Lawrence Hobson of Z. Miller of Selectmen of Raymond of Elijah Philbrick of Selectmen et al. of the town of Cape Elizabeth of Henry Tallman et al. of Cape Elizabeth et al. of B. F. Bailey et al. of John Hathorne et al. of Seth Emerson et al.

In the Senate, Mr. Smart, from the Committee on Claims, reported a resolve in favor of H. W. Wainwright for killing a wolf. The Committee also asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the claims of the late Quarter Master General, (Thompson,) and that the same be referred to a joint Select Committee, and Mr. Smith of Somerset, Clough and Somes, were appointed on the part of the Senate. The petition of S. Adams et al. was presented and referred, and the Senate adjourned.

I understand the Governor will give another batch of nominations to-morrow: the Land Agent, Adjutant General, &c. &c. Should they be made in the day time, I will send them in my letter to-morrow. Yours, P.

SATURDAY, Jan. 15, 1842.

In the Senate. An order was passed requesting the Gov. to inform that body whether a resolve, approved March 11, 1834, authorizing the Land Agent to select and set apart twenty townships of the public lands, had been complied with, and also to communicate any other information in his possession, on the subject. Mr. Bennett introduced an order directing the appointment of a Joint Select Committee to appoint the State for Representatives to the Legislature. A message was sent to the House proposing a convention of the two branches for the purpose of qualifying Messrs. Wilson, Levensaler and Stickney, Councillors elect.

Mr. Eastman from the Joint Select Committee to whom the Treasurer's report was referred, reported that the committee had examined the books and accounts of the Treasurer and found everything right. They also recommended that the compensation of the Treasurer should be increased. The committee on the Judiciary to whom was referred an order, in relation to the pay of County Commissioners, reported legislation inexpedient; they also reported that a bill in relation to the insane poor, which had been referred to them, ought not to pass; they also reported a resolve to repeal a resolve approved March 20, 1839, directing the Secretary of State to publish abstracts of the returns of common schools. Mr. Lane was charged with a message to the Governor, informing him that Messrs. Wilson, Levensaler and Stickney had been duly qualified to act as Councillors, and the Senate adj. after passing papers from the house in concurrence.

In the House, the papers from the Senate were disposed of in concurrence. Order of notice was granted on petition of Joseph Davis; on petition of Samuel Dam et al.; on petition of J. Dow, et al. The following Committee on Accounts were directed to inquire into the account of Henry K. Adams, Sheriff of Piscataquis Co. and if correct to allow the same.

The following Joint Select Committee were appointed, to whom was referred the petition of Ous C. Cross et al. in relation to making County roads. viz. Messrs. Rogers, Daw, Merceen, Weeks, Hayward, Haskell, and Thompson. A message was received from the Senate, proposing a convention to qualify Messrs. Wilson, Levensaler and Stickney, Councillors elect; this House concurred.

On motion of Mr. Otis of St. George, ordered that a joint Select Committee be appointed to apportion the State for Representatives to the Legislature.

The Committee on the Judiciary were directed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law that personal property taken on execution, for debt, shall not be sold by auction, but be taken by appraisement. The following petitions were presented and referred: of inhabitants of town of Penobscot of John K. Gilman et al. of Joseph Chase et al. of Daniel Herrin et al. of Isaac Hodgdon et al. of Dorcas Howard et al. of inhabitants of Burlington of Selection of Lowell of William D. Sewal et al. of Shenebiah Dakin of Selection of Trenton.

The following nominations have just been made by the Governor. On's Bridges, Cilla's, Atty General. Alfred Redington, Augusta, Adj. General. John Shepley, Saco Reporter. L. Bradley, Bangor, Land Agent. Benjamin Carr, Palermo, Warden of State Prison. Nathaniel Michell, Portland, Bank Commissioner. Alpheus Lyon, County Atty. Cumberland. Thomas Cunningham, Wiscasset, Sheriff, Lincoln.

Jacob Smith, Wiscasset, Clerk Courts, Lincoln. Geo. W. Nichols, Nobleboro, Reg. Probate, Edmund Wilson, Thomaston, County Atty. James R. Batchelder, Readfield, Sheriff Kennebec Co.

Asaph R. Nichols, Clerk Courts, Ken. Co. Francis Davis, Jr. Augusta, Register of Probate, Kennebec.

Geo. M. Weston, County Attorney, Kennebec. O. Neil W. Robinson, Watford, Sheriff, Oxford County.

Joseph G. Cole, Paris, Clerk of Courts, Oxford County. George F. Emery, Paris, Register of Probate, Oxford County.

Hastings Strickland, Bangor - Sheriff, Penobscot. William T. Hillard, Clerk Courts, Penobscot.

John Williams, Register of Probate, Penobscot. Chas. C. Cushman, Dexter, County Attorney, Penobscot.

I have this moment, seen Adjutant General, Hodgdon, and a happier man I have not seen for many a day. He says he would not hold any office under Gov. Fairfield; if he could not that he has any personal dislike to the Governor, but he should consider it a degradation to hold office under an Administration, so many of whose supporters, have so villainously abused him without any cause. I understand in the case of Clerk, for Penobscot, that all the other candidates combined against Prescott; they told the Governor, any body except Prescott. Yours, P.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 11.

In the Senate, numerous petitions were presented by various Senators, mostly from New York, against the repeal of the Bankrupt Law, among which were petitions presented by Mr. Wright of 162 persons, and by Mr. Tallmadge of 25 firms of New York city, against the repeal.

A resolution submitted yesterday by Mr. Calhoun, requesting the President to communicate to the Senate a copy of the protest of the officers and crew of the brig Creole, on her late passage from Richmond to New Orleans, if received, or any authenticated account of the murder of a passenger on board, and the winding of the captain and others by the slaves on board the same, and of subsequent occurrences, particularly at Nassau, New Providence; and also, if consistent with the public interest, what has been done by the Executive for the punishment of the guilty in this case for the redress of the wrong done our citizens, and indignity to the American flag, and the resolution was adopted.

The Exchequer plan was debated by Mr. Walker, who opposed it except its Sub-treasury features, considering it however less objectionable than the Bank bill of last session, and giving his general views on the financial subject.

Mr. Merrick has the floor for to-morrow.

In the House, this being the day on which by the vote of Saturday the Committee on the Judiciary was instructed to report a bill to repeal the Bankrupt Act, and the business before the House being the reception of petitions under a suspension of the rules for this purpose, some conversation arose as to the first business before the House, the friends of the repeal of the Act claiming that the order to the Committee superceded all other business. The Speaker decided that the reception of petitions being a special order must be executed, unless set aside by a two-thirds vote. From this decision Mr. Marshall appealed, and called the previous question. The decision of the Chair was sustained, by yeas 117, nays 84. This order was then postponed on motion of Mr. Fillmore, 151 yeas to 53 nays, both those who wanted the repeal bill brought forward, and Mr. Fillmore and those wishing action on the Treasury Note Bill to supply the wants of Government, voting in the affirmative. Mr. Fillmore the reception of petitions having been postponed immediately moved to go into the Committee of the Whole, to take up the Treasury Note bill; which was carried by a close vote of yeas 106, nays 103, and thus the reception of the report for the repeal of the Bankrupt Act was avoided; so a attempt to bring up the subject will no doubt to-morrow be made in the same manner.

The Committee of the Whole, (Mr. Hopkins in the Chair,) took up the Treasury Note Bill, which was discussed at some length, and the House adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 12.

In the House of Representatives, the trial was again repeated by the friends of the repeal of the Bankrupt Act, and by those in favor of the immediate passage of the Treasury Note bill, to postpone the reception of petitions for the purpose of proceeding to the favorite of these two objects, which, after an unsuccessful attempt by Mr. Fillmore to offer a resolution to suspend debate on the Treasury Note bill to-morrow, two-thirds voting for the suspension of the rules for its introduction, resulted in going into Committee of the Whole again on the Treasury Note bill.

Several motions for adjournment, and for going again into Committee, having been made, of which the Yeas and Nays were called a number of times, the House adjourned.

In the Senate great numbers of petitions were presented from New York, by Messrs. Wright, Tallmadge, Walker and Clay, on the subject of the Bankrupt Law, and all, with one exception, remonstrating against its repeal or suggesting amendments.

Mr. Clay said that he had been requested by letter to speak in favor of the prayer of the petition presented by him. The question was not now debatable, and all he could say was that the memorialists had his profound sympathy, and he regreted that any disposition was manifested to repeal so beneficial an Act. Brief conversation arose on another of the petitions, between Messrs. Calhoun and Berrien, the former contending that this law was unconstitutional, and the latter defending its constitutional and other grounds.

Communications were received from the Treasury Department, showing what would have been the distributive share of each person and State of the United States, had the Distribution Act been in force in 1841; and giving an account of the operations of the Banks of the District of Columbia in 1841.

The Exchequer plan was debated by Mr. Merrick, who held that they were bound to exercise the power given them by the Constitution to regulate the currency, and that the other systems of finance being now out of the question, this last alternative should be resorted to, which was not so abhorrent in many respects as had been contended; and by Mr. Sevier, who commented upon the family broils of the Whig party, and said he could not see how any who voted for the bills of last summer could refuse this for which he could not vote in its present form, but it would receive his support if amended to suit him. Mr. Benton has the floor for to-morrow.

FOREIGN.

From Gibraltar.

The brig Tarquin, of New York, brings Gibraltar papers to the 5th ult. On the 5th, the U. S. corvette Fairfield, Capt. J. Tattnall, arrived at Gibraltar 13 days from Mahon.

On the 9th, the arrivals were the Brigantine Susan, 4 days from Malaga, with wine and raisins, for Baltimore; and the Tarquima, from Baltimore for New York.

Madrid was still declared in a state of siege, which one of the Madrid papers accounts for by the Regent's determination to admit British and other foreign manufactured goods into the kingdom, which the Catalans were determined to resist unto the death. Hence the expediency of retaining their capital under martial law, and keeping up large bodies of troops in the provinces.

The accounts from Constantinople, to the 17th of Nov., speak of great activity in the naval and military preparations of the Porte, and indicate an approaching war with Greece as giving occasion for them. But whether this war was to be offensive or defensive appeared to be questionable.

The Manzari Shark, published at Smyrna, had been suppressed in consequence of its free strictures upon the local authorities.

Accounts from Bombay to the 1st of November, represent Scinde and Afghanistan as comparatively quiet.

From China.

Within these few days, many of the British merchants have returned from Canton to Macao, simply, we believe, because they find it impossible, at present, to transact any business, but when the new teas arrive, we presume they will return to Canton and conduct their own business; or, if they do not like Canton, that they will conduct their business on board their sloops at Whampoa, and in their leisure time amuse themselves by shooting over French and Dane's islands; indeed we have heard that a few chops of fresh congo have already arrived, and been sold to an English house, the price to be settled when the season's trade is regularly opened; this latter sentence sounds rather odd, under existing circumstances, but we have little doubt that business will be done this season with the merchants at Canton. [Canton Register, Aug. 24.]

Later from China.

By way of Mexico, we have advices from Canton to the 27th August, being three days later than before received. Admiral Parker sailed on the 20th, with most of the land and sea forces, to make a demonstration upon Pekin. The Chinese had offered Sir Henry Pottinger, (the new British Superintendent,) ten millions dollars, if he would cause the expedition to be relinquished. This he declined; and on the other hand declared that in case any hostile demonstration was made by the Canton forces, he would again take the city, and treat the Chinese with the utmost rigor. If, however, they keep quiet, he would respect the Six Million Treaty. A few foreigners remained at Canton, and several ships at Whampoa, but Sir H. P. had advised the former to be ready at a moment's notice.

Latest from the Sandwich Islands and the Exploring Expedition.

Honolulu, June 13. The U. S. ship Peacock, Capt. Hudson, and schooner Flying Fish, S. Leach, commander, arrived during the week after a long and protracted cruise to the south and west, officers and crew in good health. Their original destination was the Columbia River, where they expected to have joined the other vessels of the Exploring Squadron two months since, but a want of provisions compelled them to put away for this port. During their cruise they have surveyed most of the small islands directly to the southward of this group, and from thence proceeded to the Samoa Archipelago; at one of which, after firing round and grape shot to disperse the natives at their settlements, they landed and burned three of their villages, in consequence of their refusal to deliver up a chief who had murdered an American sometime previously. From thence they went northwest, visiting and surveying the numberless islands in that direction, one of which discovered; the inhabitants never having seen white men before, were exceedingly astonished at their appearance, and stood in great awe of them. At the King's-Mill group, one of their men was murdered, and a fight ensued in consequence, in which a number of natives were destroyed. They are described as being far more ferocious than the Fejians. An unsuccessful search was made for the unfortunate Capt. Dowsett, at the Pescadores; very few inhabitants were seen upon them, and it is supposed that the party that captured him must have been a fishing party from some other island. From the Pescadores the vessels came directly here, having been on half allowance of provisions and water for a long while. We welcome them back to our waters again, regretting that their stay will be limited to a few days only. The result of this cruise will be of exceeding value, particularly to whalers; as the charts of this part of the ocean are very incorrect, and had been but imperfectly surveyed previous to this cruise. Time and lack of provisions only prevented them from visiting Strong's Island, Ascension, and the Caroline group.

A defalcation in the accounts of the Treasurer of the Philadelphia Contributionship has been discovered.

Loss of the U. S. Corvette Peacock - Columbia River.

It becomes our painful duty to announce the loss of the Peacock in the Columbia River, tended with the loss of any lives. Nothing was saved, except the instruments. The entire vessel is contained in a letter from the Nor. received by a mercantile house in New York. No other particulars are given.
